	CLASSIFICATIONSECRET_ East Germany PEPORT
DUNTRY	Mast Germany REPORT
)PIC	Table of the send
/ALUATION_	PLACE ORTAINED
ATE OF COM	25X1
ATE OF CON	27 Inviews 106/
EFERENCES.	2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)
AGES	ENGLUSURES (NO. & TIFE)
E:MARKS
. ·	This is UNEVALUATED Information
-	25X1
	120 soldiers drilled in the installation and, at about 11 a.m., about 65 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and black-bordered crimson epaulets and equipped with entrenching tools left the installation toward Jena-Roedigen. On 5 January, T-34 tanks were in the barracks yard. Two JS tanks drove from the installation toward Napoleonstein. At the same time, about 160 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and black-bordered crimson epaulets and equipped with 9 x 32-mm mortars and rifles left the installation toward Jena-Roedigen. At about noon on 5 January, about 60 soldiers drilled in the installation. Machine gun reports and sustained fire were heard from the target range of the installation.
2	capacity by about 1,200 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank 25 and artillery insignia.
	Soldiers engaged in close order drill.
4.	On 29 December, the barracks installation in Jena-Loebstedt was still occupied

-CLASSIFICATION SECRET!

carbines and practice targets left the installation. The JS tanks were parked in front of the southern garage in the south section of the installation. About 30 men fell in in front of them. 20 men fell in in front of them. 21		SECRET/
On 29 December, the barracks instellation in Jenz-Maetaen was still occupied as was observed before. On 16 December, about 100 soldiers wearing rel-bordered black equalets with artillery insignia left the instalk tion, heading for the firing range between Forstendorf and Dermourg. They were equipped with submacaine gone and carbines and followed by truck; which carried practice targets. July tank and and gun wind was dug in by gunners were seen in the new training area adjacent to the north of the berracks installation. Enginer troops did entrenchin; work and established a fence around the training area. Seen cocupied by a major and a captain of the enincer troops entered the training area. On 18 December, soldiers trained with 4x 57-mm AT guns in the south section of the installation. On 23 December, 30 artillery officers including a colonel and a Heutenant colonel assembled for a briefing. About 120 soldiers dug foxholos. On 28 December, soldiers in the cust section of the forst Kaserne ongaged in individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were parked there. Residents said that ten Soviet officer families were to be quartered with farmers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 28 December, the Poisse Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-bordered black epsulets. On 24 December, 1 Hieutenant and 12 EM warring blue-bordered black epsulets. On 25 December, 1 Hieutenant and 12 EM warring blue-bordered black epsulets. On 26 December, 2 major the depot on Ersert Strasse. Between 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garages, processurably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there were signal insignia entered the dopot. On 15 and 24 December, 2 majored acout our lie 36 december was even in the yard. Sealing limiting the seal and york details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black equilets with signal insignia entered the dopot. On 15 and 24 December, 2 majored acout our lie 36 decembe		 Z 	25
On 29 December, the barracks instellation in Jenz-Maetaen was still occupied as was observed before. On 16 December, about 100 soldiers wearing rel-bordered black equalets with artillery insignia left the instalk tion, heading for the firing range between Forstendorf and Dermourg. They were equipped with submacaine gone and carbines and followed by truck; which carried practice targets. July tank and and gun wind was dug in by gunners were seen in the new training area adjacent to the north of the berracks installation. Enginer troops did entrenchin; work and established a fence around the training area. Seen cocupied by a major and a captain of the enincer troops entered the training area. On 18 December, soldiers trained with 4x 57-mm AT guns in the south section of the installation. On 23 December, 30 artillery officers including a colonel and a Heutenant colonel assembled for a briefing. About 120 soldiers dug foxholos. On 28 December, soldiers in the cust section of the forst Kaserne ongaged in individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were parked there. Residents said that ten Soviet officer families were to be quartered with farmers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 28 December, the Poisse Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-bordered black epsulets. On 24 December, 1 Hieutenant and 12 EM warring blue-bordered black epsulets. On 25 December, 1 Hieutenant and 12 EM warring blue-bordered black epsulets. On 26 December, 2 major the depot on Ersert Strasse. Between 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garages, processurably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there were signal insignia entered the dopot. On 15 and 24 December, 2 majored acout our lie 36 december was even in the yard. Sealing limiting the seal and york details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black equilets with signal insignia entered the dopot. On 15 and 24 December, 2 majored acout our lie 36 decembe
On 29 December, the barracks installation in Jens-Wastzen was still occupied as was observed before. On 16 Wecember, about 100 soldiers wearing red-bordered block epaulets with artillery insignia loft the installation, heading for the firing range between Porstendorf and Dornburg. They were equipped with submacing guns and carcines and followed by truck which carried practice targets. J. tonk and an Avgun which was dug in by gunners were seen in the new training area adjacent to the north of the barracks installation. Engineer troops side entrenchin; work and established a fence around the training area. Seam occupied by a major and a captain of the entincer troops estered the training area. On 18 December, soldiers trained with 4 x 57-mm AT guns in the south section of the installation. On 23 December, 30 artillery officers including a colonel and a lieutement colonel assembled for a briefing. About 120 soldiers dug foxholes. On 28 December, soldiers in the cust section of the Forst Kaserne engaged in individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were parked there. Residents said that ten Sowiet officer families were to be quartered with farmors in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-bordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 Identenant and 12 EM wearing blue-bordered slack epaulets entered the quartere, coming from the depot on Erbert Strasse. Bestween 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zoiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A spain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 19 and 24 December, armored scout can 16 36 was seen in the yard. Sodan	1	n front of the southern marage in the south section of the installation. Abo	ut
On 29 December, the barracks installation in Jens-Wastzen was still occupied as was observed before. On 16 Wecember, about 100 soldiers wearing red-bordered block epaulets with artillery insignia loft the installation, heading for the firing range between Porstendorf and Dornburg. They were equipped with submacing guns and carcines and followed by truck which carried practice targets. J. tonk and an Avgun which was dug in by gunners were seen in the new training area adjacent to the north of the barracks installation. Engineer troops side entrenchin; work and established a fence around the training area. Seam occupied by a major and a captain of the entincer troops estered the training area. On 18 December, soldiers trained with 4 x 57-mm AT guns in the south section of the installation. On 23 December, 30 artillery officers including a colonel and a lieutement colonel assembled for a briefing. About 120 soldiers dug foxholes. On 28 December, soldiers in the cust section of the Forst Kaserne engaged in individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were parked there. Residents said that ten Sowiet officer families were to be quartered with farmors in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-bordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 Identenant and 12 EM wearing blue-bordered slack epaulets entered the quartere, coming from the depot on Erbert Strasse. Bestween 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zoiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A spain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 19 and 24 December, armored scout can 16 36 was seen in the yard. Sodan
On 29 December, the barracks installation in Jens-Wastzen was still occupied as was observed before. On 16 Wecember, about 100 soldiers wearing red-bordered block epaulets with artillery insignia loft the installation, heading for the firing range between Porstendorf and Dornburg. They were equipped with submacing guns and carcines and followed by truck which carried practice targets. J. tonk and an Avgun which was dug in by gunners were seen in the new training area adjacent to the north of the barracks installation. Engineer troops side entrenchin; work and established a fence around the training area. Seam occupied by a major and a captain of the entincer troops estered the training area. On 18 December, soldiers trained with 4 x 57-mm AT guns in the south section of the installation. On 23 December, 30 artillery officers including a colonel and a lieutement colonel assembled for a briefing. About 120 soldiers dug foxholes. On 28 December, soldiers in the cust section of the Forst Kaserne engaged in individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were parked there. Residents said that ten Sowiet officer families were to be quartered with farmors in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-bordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 Identenant and 12 EM wearing blue-bordered slack epaulets entered the quartere, coming from the depot on Erbert Strasse. Bestween 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zoiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A spain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 19 and 24 December, armored scout can 16 36 was seen in the yard. Sodan
as was observed before. On 16 December, about 100 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia left the installation, heading for the firing range between Porstendorf and Dornburg. They were equipped with submachine guns and carbines and followed by truck which carried practice targets. Jo tank and an Ar gun which was dug in by gunners were seen in the new training area adjacent to the north of the barracks installation. Engineer troops did entremening work and established a fence around the training area. Sean coupled by a major and a captain of the en incer troops entered the training area. On 13 December, soldiers trained with 4 x 57-mm AT guns in the south section of the installation. On 23 December, 30 artillery officers including a colonel and a litutement colonel assembled for a briefing. About 120 soldiers dug foxholos. On 28 December, soldiers in the cust section of the Foret Kascrne engaged in individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were parked there. Residents said that ten Sowiet of ficer families were to be quartered with farmers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-bordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-bordered olack epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert Strasse. Between 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Centrie's observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Folizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Folizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 15 and 24 December, armored scout car Williams.			2
as was observed before. On 16 December, about 100 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia left the installation, heading for the firing range between Porstendorf and Dornburg. They were equipped with submachine guns and carbines and followed by truck which carried practice targets. Jo tank and an Ar gun which was dug in by gunners were seen in the new training area adjacent to the north of the barracks installation. Engineer troops did entremening work and established a fence around the training area. Sean coupled by a major and a captain of the en incer troops entered the training area. On 13 December, soldiers trained with 4 x 57-mm AT guns in the south section of the installation. On 23 December, 30 artillery officers including a colonel and a litutement colonel assembled for a briefing. About 120 soldiers dug foxholos. On 28 December, soldiers in the cust section of the Foret Kascrne engaged in individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were parked there. Residents said that ten Sowiet of ficer families were to be quartered with farmers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-bordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-bordered olack epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert Strasse. Between 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Centrie's observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Folizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Folizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 15 and 24 December, armored scout car Williams.
as was observed before. On 16 December, about 100 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia left the installation, heading for the firing range between Porstendorf and Dornburg. They were equipped with submachine guns and carbines and followed by truck which carried practice targets. Jo tank and an Ar gun which was dug in by gunners were seen in the new training area adjacent to the north of the barracks installation. Engineer troops did entremening work and established a fence around the training area. Sean coupled by a major and a captain of the en incer troops entered the training area. On 13 December, soldiers trained with 4 x 57-mm AT guns in the south section of the installation. On 23 December, 30 artillery officers including a colonel and a litutement colonel assembled for a briefing. About 120 soldiers dug foxholos. On 28 December, soldiers in the cust section of the Foret Kascrne engaged in individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were parked there. Residents said that ten Sowiet of ficer families were to be quartered with farmers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-bordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-bordered olack epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert Strasse. Between 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Centrie's observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Folizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Folizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 15 and 24 December, armored scout car Williams.
On 23 December, soldiers in the east section of the Forst Kaserne engaged in individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were parked there. Residents said that ten Soviet of ficer families were to be quartered with farmers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 25 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who wore blue-bordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutemant and 12 EM wearing blue-bordered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert Strasse. Between 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Dentries observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 13 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36 was in traffic to the installation	a b f g J to di	s was observed before. On 16 December, about 100 soldiers wearing red-borders lack enaulets with artillery insignia left the installation, heading for the iring range between Porstendorf and Dornburg. They were equipped with submactions and carbines and followed by truck which carried practice targets took and an AA gun which was dug in by gunners were seen in the new reining area adjacent to the north of the barracks installation. Engineer trained entrenching work and established a fence around the training area. Sedan cocupied by a major and a captain of the engineer troops entered the training area. On 18 December, soldiers trained with 4 x 57-mm at guns in	ed mine ets.2
On 23 December, soldiers in the east section of the Forst Kaserne engaged in individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were parked there. Residents said that ten Soviet officer families were to be quartered with farmers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 25 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-portered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-pordered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert Strasse. Between 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Folizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the dopot. On 13 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36 was seen in the yard. Sedan was in traffic to the installation	11	ncluding a colonel and a lieutenant colonel assembled for a briefing. About in individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were parked there. Residents said that ten Soviet officer families were to be quartered with farmers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who wore blue-bordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-bordered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert Strasse. Between 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 18 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36 was seen in the yard. Sedan was in traffic to the installation	.L s	20 soldiers aug loxnoles.
Residents said that ten Soviet of ficer families were to be quartered with farmers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were bluebordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing bluebordered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert Strasse. Between 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 15 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36 was seen in the yard. Sedan was in traffic to the installation Carmers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. On 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who wore blue- bordered black epaulets. On 24 December, I lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue- bordered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert Strasse. Between 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there wore signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 18 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36 was in traffic to the installation	i	a individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were Between 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garages, presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 15 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36 was seen in the yard. Sedan was in traffic to the installation	i	a individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 15 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36 was seen in the yard. Sedan was in traffic to the installation	i: p: Re	a individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were arked there.
presumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed there were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the Polizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia entered the depot. On 15 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36 was seen in the yard. Sedan was in traffic to the installation	in pe Refe Or bo	a individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were arked there. esidents said that ten Soviet officer families were to be quartered with armers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. In 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-prefered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-prefered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Embert in pe Re Ca Or occupie	a individual and group training. A T-34 tank and 4 x 57-mm AT guns were arked there. esidents said that ten Soviet officer families were to be quartered with armers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. In 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-prefered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-prefered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Embert in particular of the control of the	arked there. esidents said that ten Soviet officer families were to be quartered with armers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. n 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-cordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-cordered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert trasse. estween 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garage resumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed here were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the bolizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal assignia entered the depot. On 18 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36	es, i in partition of the par	arked there. esidents said that ten Soviet officer families were to be quartered with armers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. n 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-cordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-cordered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert trasse. estween 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garage resumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed here were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the bolizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal assignia entered the depot. On 18 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36	es, in particular of the particula	arked there. esidents said that ten Soviet officer families were to be quartered with armers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. n 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-cordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-cordered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert trasse. estween 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garage resumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed here were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the bolizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal assignia entered the depot. On 18 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36	es, i in particular representation of the particular representation of t	arked there. esidents said that ten Soviet officer families were to be quartered with armers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. n 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-cordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-cordered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert trasse. estween 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garage resumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed here were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the bolizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal assignia entered the depot. On 18 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36	es, i
. The first contract the contract of the $oldsymbol{2}$	in particular of the particula	arked there. esidents said that ten Soviet officer families were to be quartered with armers in the vicinity of Jena in January 1954. n 28 December, the Polizei Kaserne was occupied by troops who were blue-cordered black epaulets. On 24 December, 1 lieutenant and 12 EM wearing blue-cordered black epaulets entered the quarters, coming from the depot on Erbert trasse. estween 14 and 24 December, the depot on Erbert Strasse, formerly Zeiss garage resumably housed the signal equipment from Polizei Kaserne. Sentries observed here were signal insignia. Sentries and work details were furnished by the bolizei Kaserne. A captain wearing blue-bordered black epaulets with signal assignia entered the depot. On 18 and 24 December, armored scout car No 36	es, i